Mrs. Cindy Wright, age 54, was born August 12, 1961, in Dayton, OH to Johnetta Parrish and the late Leonard Arnold. She transitioned peacefully at Hospice of Dayton on Sunday, November 8, 2015. A lifelong Daytonian, Cindy graduated from Fairview High School and was experienced in many different career fields.

Cindy enjoyed spending time with her husband and family. She liked music, singing, and dancing. Her favorite song was "Glory Be". She was a member of First Baptist Church of Ridgewood Heights, where she enthusiastically volunteered her time and talent during the Christmas programs as Costume Manager and various other events.

Cindy was a master seamstress, who often made clothing for her family as well as wedding decorations and other creations. She was a woman who always carried herself with the definitive grace of a lady. Cindy was a devoted wife, a selfless mother, a caring grandmother, a wonderful sister, and a loving aunt whose pinches were painful but effective motivators for any child around her to straighten up, instantly! But they were ALWAYS done with love.

Cindy will be deeply missed by all who love her. SHE IS FREE FROM PAIN!! She leaves us with inspiration, insight, and courage to journey on and will forever be in our hearts.

"In my Tather's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself, that where I am, there ye may be also."

Psalm 23 - A Psalm of David (nkjv)
The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters. He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil my cup runs over. Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

If Jomorrow Starts Without ME In loving memory of our mother, Cindy Wright

If tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see, If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me; I know how much you care for me, and how much I care for you, and each time that you think of me I know you'll miss me too; But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand, that an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand, and said my place was ready in heaven far above, and that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love. But when I walked through Heaven's gates, I felt so much at home. When God looked down and smiled at me, from His great golden throne, He said, "This is eternity and all I've promised you, Today your life on earth is past but here it's starts anew. I promise no tomorrow, but today will always last and since each day's the same, there's no longing for the past. But you have been so faithful, so trusting, so true. Though there were times you did some things you knew you shouldn't do. And you have been forgiven and now at last you're free. So won't you come and take my hand and share my life with me!" So if tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, please know I'm in your heart.

Ecclesiastes 3-1-8

1 To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: 2 A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; 3 A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; 4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; 5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; 6 A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away; 7 A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; 8 A time to lose, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.
