

In addition to each of you who has come to celebrate the love and endurance of the Huguely family, the 1997 host committee also thanks these and all other friends, church members, neighbors and business associates for helping us welcome you.

Special appreciation goes to Marian Hrab, Trish K. Steen, and Ellen Budd, Columbia Inn, for their professionalism and support throughout the two years of preparation for this reunion.

“Having a warm and loving family means sharing a deep closeness. It means hugs, laughter, reunions, and sharing the good kind of tears that come from caring deeply about each other. It means there’s a place in my heart I can always come home to . . . that’s only a memory away.”
