

A Living Legacy

If you could see Amie Huguely's hand...
You would see the Love Lines, the Life Lines,
The Blood Lines that connect us all
And if you could call on the spirit of Matthew
You would hear Love Stories and Life Stories
And tales of Blood shed for you and me
That we might see better days

I don't know exactly what they'd say
But I'm sure the pride would well their eyes
To know the Huguely dream is still alive
Revived on a Madison County farm in 1954
Cousin Mary Jane Nolan opened the door
And in walked George Huguely, Lucian and Madge
Amie Gillispie, Liller and Pleas Kavanaugh
Ossie Embry and Francis Covington in spirit and in truth
Giving us a chance to share their knowledge with each other
And especially with the youth

From Generation to Generation,
From Father to Son
From one Daughter to the next
The Huguely's have gathered together for the last 50 years
Suffered through Blood, Sweat and Tears
To ensure our family dream is shared
Our next generations prepared
By knowing who WE are
Who THEY are
Who WE can become
We gather so you youngsters can see the pride well in our eyes
Feel the love that lives in our heart
And know that by connecting to family
You are connected to a part of the Huguely history
That began in 1829 with Matthew and Amie
And by the grace of God it will never end.
