REUNION

NEWSLETTER

2003

Letter from the President

Dear Family:

Another year has passed and we meet again by the grace of God to commune and celebrate. For most of us this past year has been full of trials and tribulations (war, economy, homegoings, etc). Through it all, we have remained faithful and steadfast. We have inherited from our ancestors the abilities for living life and the wisdom to embrace the fruits of life.

In a world of fads and the next "hot thing," it is comforting to know that traditions like the Huguely Reunion are alive and well. As we journey home to celebrate the 50th Anniversary give yourself a standing ovation for keeping the dream alive.

To the Lexington cousins, thank you so much for planning a celebration that sets the tone for 2004. To our family members, I encourage each of to continue to do your part to honor our legacy...The Huguely Reunion!

With Much Love,

Antoinette Toni Miles

JOHN A HUGUELY BRANCH

Greetings to our family and friends. We are truly thankful to God for the opportunity to meet and assemble during another reunion year. Even through the rough time and the passing of our dear and loved mother, sister Emma Jane Parks, God's Grace and Mercy continues to bring us through. We give him the praise. Through it all we are still blessed. Our daughter, Deanna Mylynn, graduated from Eastern Kentucky University in May, with a BS degree in Social Work, our son, Nathaniel Franklin, maintained an A-B academic standing throughout the year at St Mark, and for the second year he has been honored by the Madison County Bar Association for their Law Day Essay Contest, in which this years theme was Celebrate your Freedom: Independent Courts Protect Our Liberties. Additionally, Nathaniel was the star in his annual Middle School play, The Ransom of Red Chief, he was on St Marks' academic team, soccer and basketball team, and at the schools' Award/Honor Day, Nathaniel was bestowed the highest award St Mark offers, The Christian Life Award. Nathaniel graduated from the 8th grade and begin his freshman year at Madison Southern Berea.

Our youngest pumpkin, Raven Brooke, is eight years of age, she attends St Mark and will enter 3rd grade in the fall. Last year Raven entered The Madison County Human Society poster. She placed 1st and received a blue ribbon and a $100 savings bond. John and Felecia Shearer are the proud parents of Deanna, Nathaniel and Raven.

Semonicka Parker, granddaughter of Emma Jane Parks, graduated from Foley Middle School and will enter Madison Southern as a freshman this fall. Johnnie Choctaw, also a granddaughter of Emma Jane Parks and sister of Semonicka, graduated from Madison Southern and has been accepted to Sullivan University, Lexington. Johnnie plans to major in Computer Science.

Miriam Hooten, granddaughter of Emma Jane Parks, and elder sister of Semonicka and Johnnie continue to follow the footsteps of her grandmother, Emma Parks who was the owner, manager and operator of her own cosmetology business for some 40 years.

After the death of our mother, Miriam became the Operator, Owner, Manager of her own business, EJ's (Emma Jane) located at 954 Spanish Grove Drive, Richmond. If you want to say hi, extend congratulations or maybe get fixed with a fancy style or a super trim, Miriam would love to have your business. Her number is 859-623-0011. Miriam became a licensed cosmetologist in November 1997.

We are so proud of our entire family.

Shelia Harris – Denver, CO

Greetings Family Members:

I had major surgery on June 23 and I am grateful that my doctor allowed me to travel. I am on the mend; only two more to go. Blessings have been abundant for me this year. As of July 21, I was promoted to the executive director's position after approximately eight years with the organization. Ask me next year if I still like my job.

A trip to Germany is on my schedule for October of this year. I plan to go to Belgium, Poland, and the Netherlands. Best of all, I am using frequent flyer miles.

Sean Harris – Denver, CO

Sean Harris, son of Tim and Jauan Harris, graduated from Eagle Crest High School on May 23, 2003. Sean plans to enter Metropolitan State College in Denver.

Orestes & Robin Harris – Richmond, KY

The family increased in February by one person, with the birth of Dai'lon Gambil. Dai'lon is the son of Antoine Harris and the grandson of Orestes and Robin Harris.

All are children and grandchildren of Homer and the late Lydia Harris.

Mack Huguely and Millie Turner Branch
The Family of James A. and Alice H. Cornelison, Lucille J. Ellison and Donna Jean Harris, 2003

Greetings to all you beautiful people. We, the Cornelisons, have been greatly blessed. We have our physical problems; however, things are on the mend. We pray that our relatives and friends are as blessed as we are. To God be the glory for great things He has done. Hosanna, in the highest.

Jim and Alice are looking forward to an all-expense-paid trip to the U. S. Virgin Islands after the hurricane season. This was a gift from Jim's former employer. Since they both are now retired, they plan to visit relatives and friends throughout the eastern and central United States. Visiting historical sites and finding time to visit their 2-year-old grandson in Philadelphia are also on their summer agenda.

God has been good to us. Alice is enjoying her retirement from Howard University. She still participates in health related seminars and other presentations related to quality and compassionate palliative and end-of-life care. Going to the gym is a favorite pastime.

Terri L. Cornelison is now married to Jetty Viot III, a DC resident and lawyer in one of the Washington, DC administrative offices. Congratulations and God's blessings to them. Terri is one of only a few black women who are gynecologic oncologist. She practices at John Hopkins University Hospital in Baltimore, and loves the challenges. This is one of the leading hospitals for cancer surgery. Her main job is at the National Cancer Institute in Bethesda, MD.

Michael J. Cornelison and his wife, Carol, are enjoying their two-year-old son, Jason George Cornelison. Michael is doing quite well employed by a Philadelphia patent law firm. Congratulation to Carol who passed the Pennsylvania bar last year. She joined her father's law office. He changed the name to Priestley and Cornelison Law Office. Mike likes to participate in winter sports with friends, especially snow boarding which is easier on the knees than skiing.

Erin and Hilton Garrett from Southern Maryland are enjoying a strong relationship. For the past two years, one flies to be with the other every other weekend, either to Maryland or to Chicago. They both hope soon that conditions will be favorable to move to the next step (whatever that is). Erin still enjoys miles of daily running and even further on weekends. She completed two Chicago Marathons.

James has finally retired for the second time. He enjoys planning his own day without interference from work. Between his gym workouts and the administration work of the Baltimore Regional Community (BRC) Male Chorus, which he founded, his deacon responsibilities, and Alice's Honey-Do List, his days are full. The BRC Male chorus was a dream that is now a reality. Recordings may be the next step for this chorus. All praise and glory to God. Jim is currently going through the process of applying for non-profit status with the IRS so that all donations can be tax-deductible for this community-based chorus. Jim absolutely l-o-v-e- s to talk about this group.

Lucille Ellison, a long devoted worker in this reunion, is now living with her niece, Donna Jean Harris. She is in good spirits and wishes everyone a grand time at the reunion. She still enjoys planned bus trips to various locations with the travel club she has belonged to for several decades.

Prayers go out to Donna Jean who lost her father, David Ashley, June 2003, in Cincinnati. In the very early years of this reunion, David was a regular attendee with his wife, Pauline Ashley. It was very uplifting to see Ethelene, Sammy, Margaret, Ruth and Raymond Harris and other family members at David's funeral. Thank you for your presence and for the Huguely Reunion letter of condolence that was read at the funeral.
